ARTICLE 2 NO STRIKE-NO LOCKOUT

The parties agree to faithfully abide by the applicable provisions of the Act. Neither the Union, its officers or agents, nor any of the employees covered by this Agreement, will engage in, encourage, sanction, support, or suggest any strikes, slowdowns, boycotting, sit-ins, concerted group absenteeism, the willful absence from ones position, work stoppage, or any such related activities covered in Section 12 of the Act.

ARTICLE 3 DUES CHECKOFF

Section 3.1. The County agrees to deduct Union dues from the wages of any employee covered by this Agreement, provided the County has first been presented with an individual written order therefore, signed by the employee, which written order shall be from year to year, and for succeeding collective bargaining agreements, unless the employee shall give ten (10) working days written notice to the County and the Union of cancellation of said allowable deduction. Said Union dues shall be remitted to the Union within ten (10) working days.

Section 3.2. The Union shall initially notify the County, in writing, as to the amount of its regular and usual initiation fees and its regular and usual monthly membership dues. Any subsequent change in these amounts shall be certified to the County, in writing, over the signature of an authorized officer of the Union at least fifteen (15) working days prior to the first of the month for which the first deduction is to be made.

Section 3.3. The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the County harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders, or judgments brought or issued against the County as a result of any action taken or not taken by the County under the provisions of this Article.

Section 3.4. Union Steward. The Union may have one steward in each department and one alternate steward in each department.

ARTICLE 4 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 4.1. Grievance is defined as a dispute as to the application of a specific provision or provisions of this Agreement to a particular factual situation involving an employee, which occurs during the term of the Agreement.

Step 1: Grievances, shall be presented in writing to the employee's immediate unit supervisor by the steward during working hours, unless a different time is mutually agreed upon by the parties, in such a matter as to not unreasonably interfere with the Counties operations. The written grievance must specifically contain what contract Article and Section violation has allegedly occurred and what remedy the grievant is seeking. To be a valid grievance, the grievance must be presented by the end of the fifth (5th) working day following the date of the occurrence of the event-giving rise to the grievance. The employee may or may not have the steward present, as the employee may elect. The supervisor shall notify the Union in writing of any settlement reached within the scope of this Agreement in the event the steward was not presented at this Step. In the event the grievance is not adjusted to the satisfaction of the employee in Step 1, it may be advanced to Step 2 as provided below.

Step 2: The steward may, by the end of the third (3rd) working day following the date of the written reply by the employee's supervisor in Step 1, present the grievance to the Department Head in writing. The written grievance shall set forth the specific provision or provisions of this Agreement that it is felt the County has violated and concise statement of facts giving rise to the grievance. Effort to adjust the grievance shall be made by the Department Head, and employee and/or the steward. The Department Head shall provide a written reply to the grievance by the end of the tenth (10th) working day after the day it has been presented to him.

Step 3: If settlement still has not been reached, the grievance may, by the end of the third (3rd) working day after receiving the reply from the Department Head, be referred to the County Board of Supervisors or to other such representative or representatives as they may designate. The County Board of Supervisors shall give an answer in writing to the Union steward within ten (10) working days after the date the grievance is submitted to them.

Step 4: In the event the grievance is not settled in Step 3 above, the Union must, within ten (10) working days after the County's Step 3 answer, appeal to arbitration, provided written notice of such intent is served upon the County. Except for the grievances arising out of the same fact situation. Separate grievances may not be joined in one arbitration proceeding except by mutual agreement of the parties. However, if the parties agree that no mutually acceptable arbitrator can be selected, the parties will jointly request PERB services to submit a list of seven (7) experienced arbitrators. The party requesting the arbitration shall strike the first name from the list of arbitrators and then the other party shall strike a name from the list of arbitrators and that process shall continue until a single name remains and that person shall be the arbitrator. Each party shall be responsible for the expenses of its representative(s) along with any other incidental expenses. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by both parties. The arbitrator shall make his/her decision in accordance with the provision of this Agreement.

The failure of an employee or the Union to appeal a grievance to the next step within the applicable time limits specified above, shall bar the employee and the Union from appealing the grievance further and any such grievance shall be considered as abandoned and finally settled, unless the time limits have been mutually extended in writing.
- B. The failure of the County to reply within the applicable times as specified above shall be deemed to be denial of the grievance which then may be appealed by the employee, or the Union, to the next step unless the time limits have been mutually extended in writing.

Section 4.4. All grievances and arbitration meetings under this Article are to be held in private and are not open to the public. The written decision of the arbitrator shall be a public document.
